HARBOR HEARING DATE IS FIXED.

Los Angeles Urged to Send Delegates to Capitol.

Enabling Act for Fair Fund Not to Be Amended.

Steam Roller Busy Holding Angelinos in Check.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES
SACRAMENTO, Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The harbor of Los Angeles and the legislation asked in its behalf, insuring municipal control of a free port, is to be the special order of the Senate Judiciary Committee next Tuesday. It is probable, in view of the importance of the question, not only in Los Angeles, but in San Diego and Oakland, that the whole evening will be allotted to the hearing and that it will be held in the Senate chamber.

Today Senator Hewitt and Assemblyman Lyon conferred about the situation and, as a result, Lyon will leave for Los Angeles tomorrow night and Hewitt has sent a telegram to Mayor Alexander and President Lusk of the Council, urging them to send official delegates to the hearing.

Lyon is going South with the Fish and Game Commission's subcommittee, including Malone of Dunsuir and Cronin of Vallejo, and will appear before the Council Monday to present the situation and the need for prompt action on the part of Los Angeles. To support this effort, Hewitt has asked the Council to hold a special session Monday to make provision for representation.

It is particularly desirable that persons informed on the harbor conditions be sent with the delegations.

STEAM ROLLER OUT.

The enabling act for the $5,000,000 fund that is to be raised by taxation of the State for the Panama-Pacific exposition will not be amended. It appeared in the afternoon that when Senator Wolfe said that the bill will be sent out of the Judiciary Committee with a favorable report neither of the Los Angeles Senators present, Hewitt, Gates or Thompson, offered a word of objection, and when the amendment was moved have been fully carried as the bill has the administration "O.K." on it and the "steam roller" was present at the session of the committee because of the Gates recall measure.

Wolfe, in asking the report, said he hoped an amendment would be recommended which would be received for the floor. "The bill was prepared by the Governor and the Attorney-General," he said, "and had the approval of the exposition commission."

The Assembly committee received no information from the Governor yesterday as to whether the amendment proposed by the committee of Los Angeles members would be accepted. Assemblyman Benedict visited the Governor during the afternoon, but received no assurance.

As a matter of fact, the amendment proposed is in the hands of the San Francisco labor union oligarchy for examination as to whether that mighty organization will stand for it. It is conceded that if the McCarthy-Galle her-Surpeth outfit does not want it, it will not go in the bill.

UNITONITES NEAR GOVERNOR.

That may be a terse way of stating the fact, but it seems to be the naked truth. Just how the "progressives" of the South, who voted for the Governor, and the members who have "taken programme" on every piece of legislation, will view this cannot be gauged this far north.

If the amendment regarding free hunting and exhibition in the woods is not inserted in the main bill and final surrender, so far as the State government is concerned, to the wishes of the labor-union crowd. It is a long step toward putting that crowd in absolute control of the exposition millionaire.

The Los Angeles members have a conviction tonight that the Governor is closer to all elements in San Francisco than he is to the South and that there has never been any real purpose on the part of the administration to permit anti-unionite provisions to get into the law.

The "snap" report of Coghlan's committee on the fair bill is still being withheld, pending the Governor's answer to the Los Angeles request. It is conceded that any attempt to amend the bill on the floor will be a farce.

"SHOWS" LOS ANGELES.

Just to show the Los Angeles delegation in the Assembly that it has power to do as it pleases, the San Francisco bay membership defeated Benedict's for advertising should, in addition to purchasing a certain amount of general publicity, yield a reasonable per cent of profit on the investment.

EVERY PENNY SPENT

That Times "Liners" serve this double purpose more effectively than any other agency, is indicated by the extent to which they are used by experienced and discriminating advertisers.

Month after month, year in and year out, The Times prints more advertising than any other paper in the world.

For the week ending February 12th, The Times printed 2117 more agate "Liners" than the aggregate of all other Los Angeles newspapers combined, and 8869 more than its nearest local competitor.

The total number of "Liners" published by The Times for the seven days from February 6th to February the 12th, inclusive, was 14,934. The prize of Five Dollars in Gold has been awarded to Mrs. C. A. Danielson, 843 West 37th Place, city, whose estimate of 14,933 was the first nearest correct estimate received in last week's contest. The winning of two "Liner" prizes renders Mrs. Danielson ineligible to participate in this week's contest, which will be the last of the present series.

One week ago today The Times printed 1261 agate "Liners." On the same day its nearest local competitor printed only 791 agate "Liners."

FIVE DOLLARS IN GOLD GIVEN AWAY

On Tuesday, February 21, a prize of Five Dollars in gold will be awarded to the person making the first nearest correct estimate of the total number of "Liner" advertisements published in The Times during the seven days from Monday, February 12, until Sunday, Feb. 19, inclusive.

Estimates should not be made until after the publication of The Times on the last day of the week for which the contest is held, and they must be delivered before 10 a.m. the following Tuesday. The name of the prize winner will be published next Wednesday. This contest is not open to employees of The Times-Mirror Company, and their company's advertisements should not be counted.

All letters should be addressed to the Contest Editor, and each will be numbered in the order of its receipt in the office, 531-535 South Spring street.

bill permitting ninety-nine-year leases on real estate in the interim, after the measure had been passed. The bill had no objection when called up and it is of great benefit to San Francisco and Los Angeles, as leases may now be made for only fifty years. On the roll call forty-two votes were cast for the bill and nine against. One by one the Bay City members rose and changed their votes until the vote stood to 24, being lost for want of the constitutional majority of 41. It was done just to manhandle the Los Angeles delegation for its effort to get the bill through. It is anticipated that the Legislature of 1917 immediately gave notice of reconsideration, in order that the demonstration might have further effect.

Coghlan also showed that his resolution calling for adjournment March 4 is not intended to hurry apportionment, but rather to give Coghlan, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, what Coghlan wanted was to force out the general appropriation bill. Under the rules the committee must report on all concurrent resolutions for the die adjournment and accompanying the bill. It is the statement of Coghlan that the bill would not stand for this and voted Coghlan down.

Parent's Devotion to Many Religions and Final Attachment to Cult Founded by Wife of Evelyn Arthur See Proves Too Much at Last for Elder Son.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES
CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Mother is a glutton for religion. She can grapple with enough to do fifteen ordinary people and handicap it easily."

Such was the comment this morning of R. M. Lawrence, 18 years old, under arrest for kidnaping his little brother, Lee, 9 years old, from their mother, Mrs. Alice Lawrence, who is declared by the older son to be a member of a religious cult known as "Happiness Circle," organized by the wife of Evelyn Arthur See, founder of the "Perfect Life" cult.

In a statement at the East Chicago avenue station, Lawrence said he was going to "stop minding in the matrimonial troubles of my parents."

"As soon as I get out of this trouble I am going after mother's cult with the idea of squaring myself. As soon as I am right with the public I am going to quit. The whole family can then climb on the toboggan and whoop it up as fast as they want, for all I care," said Lawrence.

He readily admitted that he had enticed his younger brother away from his mother, who was living at the cult home.

"If there is any place on earth that is fit to raise a kid in, it is in the midst of a bunch of religious fanatics," he said, "and there is where Lee was living when I took him. Mother always was religious and has tried all sorts of ways to make her son better, tenanted. Once, when she wasn't chasing any belief, she was in a terrible temper all the time."

"She was raised a Presbyterian, but shortly after she was married went in for the Pentecostal cult. Then she took up magnetic healing, and about fifteen years ago joined the followers of Dowie. It was after her craze for this subsided that she had no faith and was a terror. After a short time she went in for this "Happiness Circle."

"There are about a hundred women in the circle, all of whom are married or divorced. The main belief is that absent thought treatment will accomplish anything, and all their thoughts are concentrated on regaining their husband's affections."

GOVERNOR WINS FIGHT.

Forces Passage of the Banking Bill Through Lower House of the Oklahoma Legislature.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES
OKLAHOMA CITY (Okla.) Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Governor Lee Cruce today won his fight with the Oklahoma House of Representatives and succeeded in bringing about the passage of the Senate banking bill in practically the same shape as it passed the Senate.

The banking bill, in future, is to be composed of the Governor and two appointees, instead of the Governor and four State officials as at present. When the fight began, the Senate bills were lined up against Cruce. When it finished only eleven of the fifty-seven stood firm throughout the remarkable machine work that marked the day. The majority again the bill first was staved off by promises and the bill rushed over.

MAKING SLATE OF SOLONS TO PROBE ACTS OF SUPREME COURT.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES

ACRAMENTO, Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator N. W. Thompson of Alhambra, is said to be chosen by one of the men who will be chosen by the Senate to investigate the Supreme Court, under the concurrent resolution reported by the Rules Committee of both houses after a session at noon today.

Under the investigation programme three Senators and four Assemblymen will compose the inquiry body. Besides Thompson the Senate will choose, it is understood, either Boynton or Stevenson from the Republicans, and either Campbell or Caminetti from the Democrats. In the Assembly Randall of Los Angeles is also said to be a sure member. In addition the members may be Chinnard of Fresno, Bohnett of San Jose, both Republicans, and Sister of Santa Rosa.

SENATE COMMITTEE SENDS OUT RECALL BILL WITHOUT CHANGE.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES

ACRAMENTO, Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Gates recall constitutional amendment was sent out from the Senate Judiciary Committee this afternoon, amended as its author wants it amended and not otherwise. The only amendments adopted that he does not want are two making it mandatory on the Legislature to extend the recall by law to all county officers. The Gates draft used the word "may." Senator Wright had it amended to read "shall."

While Gates accepted the amendment, other Senators were not pleased with it, saying Wright had "put one over" by arraying all the county officials of the State against the measure by including them in the mandatory recall.

Wright also proposed to amend by excluding judicial officers from the recall, but this was beaten by a vote of eight to four, the negative being Curtin, Juliard, Wolfe and Wright.

Curtin made a fight for the separation of the judiciary from the rest of the recall in order to give the people a chance to vote on the questions without swallowing the whole subject, but he was outvoted.

Senator Larkin's amendment to include appointive officers and to require recall petitions from those who voted for the candidates was likewise voted down.

Larkin's amendment that no official officer could be recalled until after he had served six months was also killed.

On the final vote to report the amendment, Larkins, Wolfe and Wright voted in the negative, but Curtin served notice that he would demand the extension of the judiciary on the floor, or at least the separation of the question.

On the separation of the question it is believed the Senate may be almost evenly divided when the bill comes up, as many members will not "take programme" on the whole recall scheme as Gates has fixed it.

Gov. Cruce today granted a reprieve for him, though Bremmen has said he would return without. The shooting occurred in Hugoton, Kan., June 25, 1891, when S. N. Wood was killed. Need for Prompt Reinforcement of the Southern Senators and Representatives Becomes More Imperative if the Hewitt Harbor Bills are to Be Enacted Into Laws—Votes Needed as Speedily as Possible.

BY W. R. WILLIAMS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] State control of the harbors of the State, under the "uniform" system advocated by Senator Wolfe and his colleagues from San Francisco, is now squarely at issue with municipal control as advocated by Senator Hewitt and his colleagues from Los Angeles. The answer of the Legislature is vital to Los Angeles, San Diego and other ports along the thousand miles of golden coast. If Los Angeles is to win municipal control, its natural right, it must be by a thorough and representative effort by its official and civic organizations in support of Senator Hewitt, and the other members, whose votes alone will not bring the rights necessary to equip Los Angeles Harbor for the world commerce of the Panama Canal. There must be no delay.

RIGHT TO FIX RATES.
And that control carries with it the right to fix rates. Perhaps that is why the Senator from San Francisco opposes anything but a "uniform" policy. Municipal control puts Oakland in a position to go forward with improvement and competition. San Francisco is a free port. It wants to take chances with San Francisco, or Portland, or Seattle, in competition for the trade of the world. It does not matter whether to depend on the State. It depends on municipal control in San Francisco as well as Los Angeles.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—As an aid to fiction in its more lurid spots, the American Indian has long been known to fame and nobody has offered any objection, certainly not the noble red-man himself. With the development of the latest thrill producer, the moving picture show, however, the situation has changed.

Indian chiefs now visiting the lodge of the White Father, have voiced emphatic protest to the base uses to which their race is put in the unwritten literature of the 5 and 10-cent picture shows, and Indian Commissioner Robert G. Valentine has promised to take up the matter in all seriousness, if necessary, with the White Father himself.

Big Bear and Big Bear, of the delegations from the Cheyenne and Arapahoe tribes, which called upon President Taft this week, inspected a picture show last night during a tour of the White Father's village. They saw a story of unmitigated villainy unrolled before their eyes, and a native American in full war paint and feather, played the villain.

"I don't like it," said Big Bear, when the show was over. "It is bad to be lied about so many people. We have to go home. If we did not, we would go to President Taft and ask him to stop it. We will attend to it when we get home."

Commissioner Valentine was equally displeased. "I have seen productions wherein the Indian was pictured as almost every evil thing one can imagine," said he, "but I have seen but a few wherein he has been favorably represented. I will see what I can do to improve matters."

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—With a plea for organization and combination on the part of American business for the promotion of trade with Latin America, Senator Elihu Root of New York, landed today the principle of organization in business, in an address at the closing session of the Pan-American Commercial Congress. He deplored the fact that the operations of the law against the great industrial organizations, "reduced the industrial efficiency of the country."

"It is important to break up organizations," said Mr. Root, "where they are monopolizing the means of subsistence, but there is one way to countenance."

BACK WITHOUT RECOMMENDATIONS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Under an agreement that they would vote today on the bill to prevent gambling in cotton futures, the Committee on Interstate Commerce decided by a vote of 6 to 5 to report it to the Senate without recommendation.

The failure of the committee to make recommendations to the Senate resulted from the conviction of several members that a measure of such importance should be given more consideration.

An agreement had been made, however, and Senator Clarke of Arkansas and Senator Tillman of South Carolina held the committee to its word.

Three sections of the bill as it passed the House of Representatives were under the proposed act.

STRIKERS USE WEIGHTY LOGIC.

Try to "Persuade" Worker With Gas Pipe.

Attack Policeman Who Runs to Victim's Aid.

Scores Injured in Riot on Chicago Streets.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES) CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A score of men were severely cut and bruised in a riot at Institute Place and Wells Street late this afternoon. C. Fairbanks, a non-union baster, employed in the J. P. Smith Company's shoe factory, where a strike is in progress, was seriously hurt.

Fairbanks was on his way home from work when he was waylaid by a crowd of strikers, who demanded that he quit work at the strike bound factory or take the consequences. He refused to talk or to listen to their arguments when one of the crowd declared: "We'll make you listen," and struck him over the head with a piece of gas pipe. Fairbanks fell upon the pavement unconscious.

Policeman Joseph Loftis, who witnessed the assault, ran to his assistance and helped his assailants. The crowd hissed, jeered and hooted: "Don't let him arrest him. Take him away from the cop," they shouted, attempting to rescue their comrade.

The policeman drew his revolver, barked out a warning and de- manded the mob to take the prisoner from him. Throwing his key ring to a citizen, he shouted to him to call the patrol wagon. While waiting for the patrol to arrive, the crowd, which was growing larger every moment, made several attempts to tear the striker from him and the officer drew two shots in the air. This attracted several other officers to the scene, and the fight was at its height when the patrol from the East Chicago station came to view.

The officers dispersed the mob with difficulty and after escorting Fairbanks to his home, took his assailant to the station.

LECTURES ON IMMORTALITY.

New York Divine Creates Profound Impression at Stanford University.

(Special Correspondence of The Times.) STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Feb. 17.—Rev. Charles E. Jefferson of Broadway Tabernacle, New York, completed a series of lectures on Immortality here last night that created a profound impression. Mr. Jefferson came West for the express purpose of delivering the lectures which were the draft to be given under the West Memorial Foundation, in memory of the student who met a tragic death several years ago.

Three discourses were given, the subjects being, "Reasons for a Restudy of Human Mortality," "The Argument Against Immortality," and "The Argument for Immortality."

The income from $10,000 is expended annually in having the lectures delivered. Next year an Englishman probably will be engaged to deliver the lectures.

Stanford women are to hold a "Panama Exposition" on Washington's Birthday for the purpose of raising funds for the women's clubhouse. Many novelties are to be introduced at the fair.

John C. Branson, head of the geology department of the university, is to head a party of geologists that will explore a hitherto unpenetrated region of the northwest coast of Brazil, next summer. The party will include seven Stanford men and a New Yorker.

Visions of Leadership and Gay Nights at School Faded When Principal Sailed in With Both Fists and a Chair—Rowdy Soon Has Enough.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES) NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John R. Helms, principal of public school No. 127, at Second avenue and Tenth street, is a little man and he wears spectacles. He looked like the original mollycoddle to Tupu Gallo, 15 years old, painter and longshoreman, when Tupu came to night school last night. As far as Tupu can see through the swollen, distorted remains of his visage today, little Mr. Helms looks bigger than Gollath.

Tupo, the Strong, as he was known to his admiring gangsters, had made a wreck of discipline in night school for three weeks. Last night he saluted Mr. Helms with: "Hello, spec." How goes it?" He and half dozen fellow students sat in chairs when Mr. Helms started his way. The little principal, also brandishing a chair, mowed down the whole bunch and then walloped Tupu with his fists.

Patrolman Cox came to claim the remains of Tupu, the Strong. He was arraigned in the night court, fined $3, and paid it with a whimper, saying he was through with night school. Mr. Helms was told today that he could come back if he would comport himself as a gentleman.

But Tupu has had enough.

PARTY CABINETS FOR JAPAN.

Late Steamer Brings News of Political Coup Which Will Mean Reforms in Methods of Government.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) VICTORIA (B.C.) Feb. 17.—News of a political coup which will result in the adoption of party cabinets in Japan was brought by the steamer Kamakura Maru last night.

A formal compromise was made between Premier Marquis Katsura and former Premier Marquis Maruji Sanjo, and former Foreign Minister, and the foremost party in Japan. The cabinet agreed to postpone the widening of the railway gauge throughout Japan and the Seto-Kai in return offered consent to the ipso facto annexation of Korea.

Japanese newspaper comment is mostly favorable.

ARIZONA'S CHANCES SMALL.
Delegate From Territory Declares Congress Will Not and Can Not Act on New Constitution.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Statehood for Arizona is impossible at this session of Congress, for two reasons:

First, because the returns of the election held February 9 cannot be canvassed, and certified under the law in time to reach Washington for action by Congress; and second, because Congress is opposed to the Constitution as drawn.

Such is the view hitherto expressed by Delegates Ralph Cameron, from that Territory, and today reiterated.

He quoted the act enabling the people of Arizona to form a Constitution, and State government to support his statement of the impossibility of securing any action upon the instrument at this session.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) LAS VEGAS (N. M.) Feb. 17.—Aroused by the attempt of the Anti-Saloon League and Women's Christian Temperance Union, to block statehood through the effort made yesterday in Washington to influence Congress and the President against the new New Mexican Constitution, hundreds of officials and prominent citizens telegraphed denials today to President Taft that fraud or corruption prevailed at the recent constitutional election.

FIGHT ON STATEHOOD.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Objections to ratification by Congress of the New Mexico Constitution were voiced today before the House Committee on Territories by former Senator Henry W. Blair, of New Hampshire, and by representatives of the W.C.T.U. and Anti-Saloon League. In the absence of Chairman Hartman, of Indiana, Acting Chairman Cole continued the committee hearing until tomorrow.

Senator Blair presented petitions from New Mexico residents alleging the framing and ratification of the Constitution had been accomplished by unwise means.

Mrs. Margaret L. Ellis, of the National League, and S. E. Nicholson, of the Anti-Saloon League, presented their objections.

Men Wait Ten Years for Sisters to Reach Marriageable Age—Double Wedding Follows as Result of Vow Taken in Boyhood—Courting Under Difficulties.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES) KOMOMO (Ind.) Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tillman Clark, this evening, Delbert and Charles Johnson, twin brothers, and Misses Kate and Luia Clark, twin sisters, were married.

Back of the union of twin brothers and twin sisters is a story of the fulfilling of a pledge entered into by the Johnson boys when they were lads ten years ago. They agreed then that they would marry twins. As the years passed the idea grew with them. It is said they courted three other "sets" of twins before they became engaged to the Clark girls.

The Johnson boys first became interested in the Clark girls ten years ago.

The boys were then twenty-one and the girls only nine. The boys say they thought the little girls unusually attractive, and no thought then that serious attachment would spring up years afterwards.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] General Superintendent G. S. Mooney, of the Northwestern Expanded Metal Company of Chicago, was given a hearing at Jeannette, Pa., last night, on a charge of $1000 bail for court on a charge of shooting his company's Western Pennsylvania manager Frank M. Whetstone, at Jeannette, February 4. The hearing, which was a quiet one, was held by Justice W. E. Carey.

It was set forth by Whetstone that he had found his employer hugging and kissing the beautiful Mrs. Whetstone and had tried to shoot Mooney on the spot. Mooney, who is a much larger and more powerful man, took the revolver away from Whetstone and shot him with his own weapon, one of his fingers being almost torn off.

Whetstone's testimony in brief, was as follows:

HEARD THEM SPOONING.

"When I entered the hallway of my home, February 4, I heard my wife and Mooney talking in a room and I listened at the door.

"I heard Mooney say: 'Do you love me? I have always loved you, and would like to get you away from Frank and have you come to Chicago to live.'

"I took the revolver out of my overcoat pocket and placed it in the pocket of my coat. I entered the door and saw Mooney bending over my wife, who was sitting on a chair. He had his left arm around her, and his right hand was on her head.

"I said: 'I think this thing has gone far enough.' I started for Mooney, who picked up the chair on which my wife had been sitting and said to me: 'I'll get you with this.'

"I drew my revolver, but before I could use it we clinched and in the struggle Mooney, who is the larger man, took the weapon away from me. Pointing it at my head, he said: 'Look out, I am going to shoot.'

Sheriff and Posse Hard on the Tracks of the Murderers of Stockmen in Nevada.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

EAGLEVILLE (Pa.) Feb. 17.—Advices from Eagleville today are that the Sheriff's posse of twenty men and four members of the Nevada State Police, have the plain trail of the murderers of Cambribo, Indio, Laxague and Erramouze, the Western county stockmen, and exacted a heavy toll.

The unanimous opinion at Eagleville and vicinity is that Indians committed the murders. Excitement runs high at Eagleville, and a Citizens' Committee has offered a reward of $3000 for the capture of the murderers.

The bodies of the murdered men arrived in Eagleville yesterday. They were carried out on stretchers to Denio, where the inquest was held Wednesday. Cambribo was shot four times; Indio four times and Laxague once.

Riding to the Norton-street grammar school on the handle bars of a bicycle ridden by Howard Grant, James Baker damaged his feet so severely that his right foot is now useless.

The boy was removed to his home on the south side, and his arm was set in a local hospital.

E. H. Eskew, manager of the Earl Fruit Company, was here today making the preliminary arrangements for the transfer of the company's main office from Los Angeles to this city.

This is the second time that the expansion of the activities of orange marketing in this city, looking to eventually making Porterville the principal shipping center of this State other than Los Angeles. It is said that at least two other of the independent companies are to make Porterville their headquarters during the coming shipping season, with the result that Tulare county oranges will mean Porterville in the eastern markets.

As the Exchange already has its headquarters here, the advertising value of the central offices being placed in this city can scarcely be overstated.

After having secured all of the rights of way for the Porterville Northeastern Railway, from Porterville to the proposed terminus at Springville without the condemnation of a foot of land, the railroad will be built in the direction of the town, and changed the minds at the last moment and shattered what undoubtedly would have been a record in railroad building, when they forced Manager F. TOWN RECHRESTED.

SPRINGVILLE, Feb. 17.—After working on the property for nearly a year, the Upper Tulare Development Board, the commercial organization of the river orange growers, have secured from Washington an order changing the official name of this community from Daunt to Springville.

In the early days of the settlement, this village has been in an anomalous position of having one universally accepted name and one official name. Almost universally the city has been called "Springville," but Uncle Samuel named it Daunt, officially, and this caused considerable confusion and the inhabitants have been for a long time attempting to secure a change.

The order was received from Washington yesterday making the desired correction.

Children Sent on Errand Subject of Mistaken Philanthropy, and Finally Land at Central Station.

Malcolm Waters, aged 4, and his little brother, Frank, 18 months his junior, proved unsatisfactory messengers when their mother sent them to the corner grocery from their home at Court and Figueroa streets last evening.

Arriving at the store, the children became engrossed in the contemplation of a show window filled with candy. A kind-hearted man noticed them and, making a remark to the shopkeeper, bought the young visitors a couple dozen of the bright sticks of sweetness. That settled it for Malcolm and Frankie.

They played with the candy on the sidewalk until they had forgotten, not only that they had been sent for, but that they had been sent for. They were picked up by a patrolman and taken to the Police Station, where the chair of Desk Sergeant Smith was thoroughly smeared with candy before the children's frantic mother located them.

SOLONS TAKE COGNIZANCE OF MEXICAN REVOLT; WIRE TAFT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 17.—Means of correction of the judiciary of the state held paramount place in legislative enactment today, and in discussion tonight, and probably will be the subject of legislative action tomorrow. There is appreciable sentiment in favor of keeping hands off, the sole topic being how best to reform procedure and discipline erring judges if any are found.

The report of the Assembly Committee on Rules, calling for a committee of three Senators and two Representatives to investigate the action of the Supreme Court, is awaiting a hearing in the case of Abe Ruef, adopted in the lower house today, should be received in the Senate tomorrow morning. It is likely that the Senate will look it over well before acting upon it. The petition of the court for an investigation does not ask for any probe reaching further than the Ruef case. The resolution of the Assembly does not provide for an investigation of greater scope. There are tonight the possibilities that the Senate might find a restricted investigation unsatisfactory, and even that it might find any investigation unsatisfactory. The Constitution provides methods of impeachment, and also the State officers are removed upon concurrent resolution adopted by a two-thirds vote of each House. These provisions will be not lightly talked over, before final action is taken.

An effort to remove the recall of judges from the State Constitutional amendment providing for recall of executive officers failed, in Judiciary Committee late today. An amendment to that effect received the votes of Senator Wright, its author, and Senators Curtin, Juilliard and Wolfe. Another amendment offered by Senator Ladd, providing that the recall of the recall only apply to elective officers, and that no recall be had against a member of the judiciary until six months after his alleged offense, were lost, and the bill was reported for passage.

The vote was:

Ayes—Senators Boynton, Caminetto,

Curtin, Gates, Hewitt,

Juilliard, Shanahan, Stetson, Thompson—10.

Nos—Senators Larkins, Wolfe,

Wright—3.

As reported for passage, the amendment provides for recall elections of governors, State officers and one per cent of all voters; for recall of State officers elected by districts upon petition of 20 per cent, and of offices of city and county, upon petition of 25 per cent. These are maximum percentages. Counties and municipalities may fix lower ones, and as minimum may be imposed in their amendment later. Petitions for recall elections for State officers must carry names of at least 1 per cent of the voters in each of five counties.

No official may be recalled unless at the election a majority of all votes cast are in favor of recall.

The Legislature today took official cognizance that there is trouble across the Mexican border. A resolution by Senator Wright, adopted by both houses and telegraphed to the President, the Secretary of War and the troop train to inspect border conditions between here and the Arizona line.

Gen. Bliss had advised the War Department that a number of wounded and sick were now in Calexico and that, as the army had not sufficient funds to take care of them, Red Cross assistance was needed.

DIRECT ELECTION OF SENATORS FINDS ROCKY ROADS IN SENATE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Enmeshed in an apparently hopeless tangle over the joint resolution providing for the election of United States Senators by direct vote, and in the face of positive opposition from the champions of the measure, the Senate adjourned a few minutes before 6 o'clock today.

It had been hoped by friends of the measure that a night session might be held and that at least a vote would be taken on the Sutherland amendment retaining the control of Senatorial elections in Congress. No progress was made, save that Senator Heyburn spoke in opposition to the Sutherland provision and Senators Carter and Heyburn spoke in support of it.

While Mr. Heyburn, the last speaker, was on the floor, several Senators engaged in an active propaganda in favor of an agreement on a definite time for a vote and the announcement was made at last that Mr. Heyburn was the only Senator whose assent to this arrangement had not been obtained. When he was approached on the subject, he declined.

When Mr. Carter, the other Idaho Senator, asked for an agreement to vote next Wednesday, Mr. Heyburn promptly objected. One objection is sufficient to prevent unanimous agreement, and because of the attitude of his colleague, no course was left to Mr. Borah except that of pressing the measure by asking the Senate to stay for a night's rest before beginning the adjournment.

Mr. Gallingher moved an adjournment. The friends of the measure rallied and on a roll call voted the motion down, 44 to 36, but when, a few moments later, Senator Nelson, who had waited patiently all day to get an opportunity to speak, made a plea for a night's rest before beginning the adjournment, closing the session soon afterward, adjournment coming soon afterward.

May Be Up Today.

It was understood the election question would be taken up early tomorrow. In view of the fact that another order of business has been arranged for 2:30 o'clock there may be a change of program.

President Taft was appealed to to assist in getting a night session on the resolution in the interest of the public welfare of the country.

Mr. Rayner warned the Senate against any interference with the Southern States, which insured the supremacy of the white race in the South.

Senator Carter followed with an argument to prove that with a change in the manner of senatorial elections the Sutherland amendment was necessary to "ensure the perpetuity of Congress itself."

So, There!

ARMOUR PACKING COMPANY SAYS IT'S THROUGH WITH MISSOURI.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

S. LOUIS, Feb. 17.—Officials of the Armour Packing Company served notice today to Secretary of State Taft that the company will withdraw from business operations in Missouri. What reasons prompted the decision are not stated.

The Armour Company is one of the defendants in a suit proceedings initiated for alleged violations of the anti-trust laws of Missouri. The suit is spending in the Supreme Court of the State.

The Republic Oil Company attempted two years ago to circumvent ouster proceedings by quitting the State, but the Supreme Court in sustaining the suit against it, directed that its property be held against any claims liable to be made. That case was appealed and a bond covering costs furnished.

DANGER IN EAST.

However, if any Federals attempt to rush the town from the east, they are likely to suffer severely in dynamite traps. Leyva and Stanley set out in that direction, with explosives after the last newspaper man to get back over the line. They were last seen beyond the railroad bridge blown up Wednesday night.

The "American Legion," made up mostly of I.W.W. men, is the fastest growing division of Leyva's army. There is no formality about enlisting. The prospective recruit is simply introduced to the men, and Leyva says "welcome," which is one of his few English words he knows, then ties a red ribbon about his sleeve. If he wears a coat, the ribbon is pinned upon the lapel. But this is seldom, as most of the volunteers come to the "Army of Liberty" in overalls which therefore constitute their uniforms.

COMPLAIN OF FEDERALS.

American ranchers south of the boundary went to Calexico today to complain of the rapacity of the regular Federals and to present to the Mexican Consul $1000 claim for stolen horses, cattle, wagons and even kitchen equipment. Lee Little, one of these ranchers, reported that after commanding most of his live stock, the Federals violated American neutrality by crossing the line and marching eastward in order to be safe from attacks by pursuing foes. This probably accounts for the failure of Leyva's scouts to find Vega and his fleeing command.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NOGALLES (Ariz.) Feb. 17.—Exclusive Dispatch.] Mexican soldiers from Hermosillo and other points in the interior suffered greatly last night when the thermometer dropped and it commenced to snow heavily. The soldiers' uniforms are thin and some of them had never seen snow.

The report is current here that the insurgents have abandoned their proposed attack on Nogales and are concentrating their forces near Hermosillo, which is said to be practically surrounded by winter troops. Some have been brought to Nogales, Chihuahua, and Agua Prieta from the capital. A large force of insurgents is said to be camped near Santa Cruz.

Pasadena. MAYOR SPEAKS ON CITY NEEDS.

Thum Presents His Views With Lucid Fairness.

Ridicules Annexation Bugaboo; Outlines Plans.

Absolves Los Angeles From Iniquitous Designs.

(Office of The Times, M. S. Raymond avenue)

PASADENA, Feb. 18.—"If we can get Owens River water for Pasadena in the way we want it, I think we should do it. If we are invited by Los Angeles to a joint conference with equal representation to devise a way for getting that water on our terms and we, with our intelligent men who we have here in Pasadena have not sense enough to protect ourselves, then I say we should be swallowed up," said William Thum, candidate for Mayor, at a meeting of the Men's Club of the First University Club last night.

The meeting was the first important political gathering of the present campaign. The two principal speakers of the evening were Mayor Thomas Earley who told what he has done during his four years' tenure of office and William Thum who, so far, is the only candidate for Mayor to be elected at the approaching election.

Thum's address was closely followed by the audience of politicians present, many of whom met him for the first time. All were anxious to hear what he had to say regarding the issues of the campaign. His address was devoted chiefly to discussion of the present water situation and the work which is being done by the Board of Trade Water Committee of which he is secretary. Regarding the matter of streets and bond issues for play-grounds and bridges and other public improvement he stated he thought public record with the plans of Mayor Earley.

Regarding the proposition recommended by Mayor Earley for a commission form of government for Pasadena, Thum stated that he is thoroughly in sympathy with the idea. "I think that during the next two years the matter should be thoroughly investigated and at the same time we should change our charter to provide for such form of government," said he. "Then with five men to be elected instead of one, I believe we would not have so much trouble getting men who would be willing to serve."

OPPOSES ANNEXATION.

Regarding the matter of annexation of Pasadena to Los Angeles Thum said, "I am absolutely opposed to annexation. Regarding all this talk regarding consolidation I wish to say that I have been misquoted and there is more fuss being made about it than necessary. The charge that I have worked for consolidation in order to get Owens River water is wrong. I am a member of the committee which went to Los Angeles to consult with the people there regarding Owens River water and I do say the proposition made to us by the members of the Consolidation Committee of that city sounds good. Whether they mean what they say or not, I am not prepared to say. But I believe they are sincere and do want to do the very best they can for us. The charge which has been made that Los Angeles will have to sell water to Pasadena in order to dispose of their supply because she has no one else to sell it to, is wrong and if we continue to quibble around we will lose any chances of getting it and when it is too late we will see our mistakes."

"I am in favor of being fair and treating the people of Los Angeles with the same courtesy that she treats us. I believe in finding out what Los Angeles has to offer. Regarding the proposition of getting a supply of water from the Tujunga I will say that our committee has not made its final report on that supply. I do say however that we sub-committee will make a report shortly which will state that Pasadena has now exhausted its present supply of water and will, sooner or later, have to look for additional water, and now is the time for us to look around and get the best we can."

Then he followed up his remarks by intimating that there is a possibility that the power companies are behind the proposition of preventing Pasadena from getting a supply of water from the Owens River. He also intimated that in case Pasadena decides to try to get Tujunga water that the power companies might block it.

Mayor Earley's address was listened to with much interest. He stated that he had done everything possible to get municipal ownership of water for Pasadena. The present supply of water for the city for sometime to come; he does not think it is necessary to consolidate the cities to get it. He stated that Pasadena is the seat of the country; that the seat of the country is getting along nicely and should soon be paying for itself. He also recommended that bonds should be voted to buy Carmelita playgrounds and the Arroyo Seco bridge.

"Universal Experiences" was the subject on which Sigurd Russell, son of Mrs. Richard Fuller, addressed the audience at the Maryland Inn last night. Russell told of ten years of travels which he has either seen or interviewed. Among others were Queen Victoria, Edward VII, Leopold, Kaiser Wilhelm, President Loubet of France and the Khedive of Egypt.

Mrs. Russell was in school at Gravesend, in an institution from which the Khedive had been graduated. The royal Egyptian pays a visit to his alma mater each year and is a great sport. Russell met him while in school and afterwards passed the Khedive in the streets of Cairo and the ruler recognized him.

When he was a very small boy, Mr. Russell resorted to artifice in order to attract the attention of royal personages. He forced Leopold to step on his toes, whereupon the King graciously raised him and his son in his lap in his apologies. He crawled under the carriage of Queen Victoria on the occasion of the unveiling of a statue, crying "Here's the Queen," and when the guards carried him away the queen called her for scolding him and he audibly said a kiss was a "handshake" and constitutional.

cheerfully predicted by Mr. Russel, who saw the fall of the King in all the great monarchial governments.

"In ancient times," said he, "the fate of Europe and the preservation of its dynasties depended upon the diplomacy of its statesmen and the strength of its armies. Today the fate of empires depends upon the success of their dynasties. Other elements than political hysteria and traditional loyalty to the sovereign enter the question of the ruler's safety and the stability of his reign."

ARRIVE FOR ANNIVERSARY.

August A. Busch and a party of relatives and friends arrived yesterday afternoon to the beach residence of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schubert, brother and sister-in-law to Mrs. August A. Busch. The Busch golden wedding will be one of the notable events of the year, although none but relatives and friends are invited to the celebration. In the party yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. Hugo R. Reisinger of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Paul von Gontard of Berlin, Germany; Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Scharrer of Kronstadt, Germany.

ORGANIZE LEAGUE.

The Public Athletic League was formally launched last night at a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce building. The chief organizer, A. C. Braden, physical instructor in the public schools, delivered the principal address, outlining the objects of the league. A temporary organization was effected of which Dr. Webster Merryfield was elected chairman. The hundred or more persons who came to secure a thousand members. The primary objects of the organization are to promote public playgrounds for the children of the city and to have each playground properly supervised by competent instructors.

NEW STATION RUMORED.

It has been rumored, for some time, that the Santa Fe Railroad is planning to build a new station station in the city. The proposed location is a piece of ground belonging to the railroad company on Holly street just back of Library Park. However, no confirmation to the rumor has been received as yet. The present station is located on the grounds of the Hotel Grand and is understood that the quarters are considerably cramped for the tremendous business which the company has been doing this winter. One ground for the rumor is that smaller Farn & Co. Express will move its quarters from South Fair Avenue to the Santa Fe station. At present there are no quarters there and, unless a new station is built, an additional room will have to be constructed adjoining the station.

HARD HEAD.

The exceptional thickness of his hair saved William Jones, a blacksmith who works for the Huntington Beach Sugar Company, from drowning by being thrown against a brick wall. First street, yesterday morning, Jones came over from Huntington Beach Thursday afternoon to visit with his brother and family, who live at a rooming-house at the above number. Early in the morning he was awakened by hearing Jones bumping his head against the brick wall. He went at it billy-goat fashion. At first the onlookers were rather amused, but when Jones' face became bloody and then blackened, Police Officer Patrick and Captain John were summoned and Jones was taken to the insane ward at the Police Station. Later he was taken to the County Hospital. For some time Jones was confined in a hospital at Santa Ana for insanity, but had only been out of that institution a short time.

SOCETY EVENTS.

Miss Marion Hamilton of East Calloway street entertained yesterday with a prettily-appointed luncheon which was given for Misses Esther and Polly Shaffer of West Philadelphia street, who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Banks of Monterey road. Covers were laid for Mrs. Ansor Lisk, Miss Elizabeth McMechan, Gladys McLachlan, Marion Toedt, Marguerite Williams, Bessie Mattison, Marguerite Torrey, Katherine Wadsworth, Louise Hawkins, Lucy Smith, Margaret Scherer, Florence Thomson and Ruth Landau of Los Angeles.

One of the changing affairs of last night was a dinner given by Mrs. Helena Childs and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Childs, at their home, No. 16 North Grand avenue, in honor of Miss Adeline Wright, whose marriage to William Palmer, Fuller of San Francisco, took place next Tuesday.

The motif of the dinner was pink and white. Covers were laid for the bride and groom-elect, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wright, father and mother of Miss Wright. Miss Edmiston, who will be maid of honor, Paul Geisley, who will be best man, Mr. and Mrs. George Cruckshank, Mr. and Mrs. J. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Sturz.

Miss Mida Frances Webb gave a thimble party yesterday afternoon at her home, No. 312 Summit street, in honor of Miss Jean Clerihew of New York who is the house guest of Mrs. Newell.

Miss Clerihew is a soprano singer in the East. She entertained the girls with several selections.

The members of the La Crescents Club danced at the Shakespeare Club last night.

The program will be arranged by Mrs. Albert Sherman Hoyt, Miss Alice Coleman and Frank Patterson. Tea will be served every afternoon.

Arrivals at the Hotel Green yesterday were Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Hargan, Mr. and Mrs. Simon and Mr. Palmer of San Francisco who came down from San Francisco to be present at the Fuller-Wright wedding next Tuesday; Mrs. J. P. Cunningham and Mrs. M. E. Howe, New Castle, Pa.; Mrs. W. W. Chapman, Toledo, Ohio; William Hollister, New York; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Sullivan, Indianapolis; Mrs. G. W. Christy, Wickliffe, Pa.

"Universal Experiences" was the subject on which Sigurd Russell, son of Mrs. Richard Fuller, addressed the audience at the Maryland Inn last night. Russell told of ten years of travel which he has either seen or interviewed. Among others were Queen Victoria, Edward VII, Leopold, Kaiser Wilhelm, President Loubet of France and the Khedive of Egypt.

Mrs. Russell was in school at Gravesend, in an institution from which the Khedive had been graduated. The royal Egyptian pays a visit to his alma mater each year and is a great sport. Russell met him while in school and afterwards passed the Khedive in the streets of Cairo and the ruler recognized him.

When he was a very small boy, Mr. Russell resorted to artifice in order to attract the attention of royal personages. He forced Leopold to step on his toes, whereupon the King graciously raised him and his son in his lap in his apologies. He crawled under the carriage of Queen Victoria on the occasion of the unveiling of a statue, crying "Here's the Queen," and when the guards carried him away the queen called her for scolding him and he audibly said a kiss was a "handshake" and constitutional.

The work of pumping out the sunken dredger Windham in the inner harbor is progressing satisfactorily and the same will be floated tomorrow.

GLENDALE, Feb. 17.—It has been decided by the Glendale Valley Improvement Association that the second annual May Festival shall be held this year in this city. The date set for the celebration is Saturday, May 13, and the place for the festivities will be Verdugo Park. Already arrangements are in full swing and from present plans it seems very probable that this year's event will be far eclipse of that of last season. The executive board of the association has been appointed as Committee of Arrangements.

It is proposed by those in charge that the people of Glendale own vehicles meet those coming here at the car line, then drive them around the city and afterward take them to the park, which is about half a mile to the north. At the park a grand barbecue will be held from noon to 2 o'clock, followed by a baseball game, dancing and other attractions.

LONG BEACH, Feb. 17.—The Board of Education yesterday by resolution relieved Paul Jones, assistant gardener of the public schools, of further service as such and holding back his February pay, to repay the district in part the money which it is claimed he had drawn during his service without working.

alleged that the bait he had set was employed in doing laundry work for a relative, at the expense of the district.

The school board found that Jones drew $12 without the necessary equipment and so cut his head off and instructed Head Gardener Lund to secure another assistant.

WILL VOTE ON PROHIBITION.

Anti-Saloon Element After Two Years Efforts Succeed in Getting Matter Before the Voters.

VISALIA, Feb. 17.—After successfully fighting for two years all attempts from the anti-saloon organizations of this city to bring the saloon question to an issue, the City Council capitulated last night at a special meeting and by a bare majority of one vote, consented to call a special election to be held February 23. There are those who draw an invidious inference from the date and assert that it will be "23" for the saloons.

Attorney Power, representing the anti-saloon forces, made an eloquent plea in which he asserted over and over again that true representative government did not consist in the Council standing out against the will of the people and that the vast majority of the Visalia taxpayers wished to see the question brought to an issue.

For the past two years Messrs. Orr and Askin have been the two Council members favoring an open vote on the question. Trustees Lucier, Doliner and Jordan standing firm against submission of the vote.

W. R. Pigg, the chairman of the Board of Trade and Mr. M. M. Martin, representing the Merchants' Association, earnestly sought the Council to call an election, urging that the general city election would be a bitter affair and inimicable to the best business interests if complicated by the liquor question as well as the issue.

Hundreds of people crowded the Council chamber to listen to the discussion and there was a cheer when Mayor Orr left the chair, calling Trustee Doliner to the seat, and made the motion that the election be called to submit the saloon issue. It being understood that the Council shall be morally bound by the outcome.

There was a hubbub when Chairman Pigg called the roll. Trustees Orr and Askin thereupon voted "yes." Trustees Jordan, "no," with Doliner and Lucier refusing to answer to their names. After a moment's hesitation, Lucier stood and addressing the chair,

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Chief Eley of the fire department yesterday challenged Councilman Stewart to test the life-saving apparatus by jumping from a second-story window into a life net, and the Councilman accepted the challenge.

Mayor Alexander yesterday called the attention of the Council to the fact that there might be $200,000 surplus in his city's reserve fund which could be used for a municipal railroad to the harbor.

The marital troubles of Prof. Harry Couchman and wife were aired in Judge Monroe's court yesterday.

Dell Norton secured her decree of divorce from George Norton, her husband, in the case was Miss Mabel Ewing, formerly a singer in the choir at the Simpson Memorial Church, San Francisco.

At the City Hall.

STEWART TAKES HIS CHALLENGE.

COUNCILMAN AGREES TO TRY LIFE-SAVING APPARATUS.

Fire Chief and Financier Propose to Test Nets by Jumping From Second Story Window—Finance Committee Makes Appropriation to Send Firemen Away for Schooling.

Councilman Stewart yesterday afternoon accepted the challenge of Chief Eley of the Fire Department to test the city's rescue apparatus by jumping from a second-story window into a life net. The matter came up at a meeting of the Finance Committee when it was voted to appropriate $100 with which to send a fireman to San Francisco to take training in the use of the safety appliances.

"I want to know," said Councilman Stewart, "before I jump out of a window that the net below is going to be properly handled."

"If you have any doubt about that I'd like to have you try it," said Chief Eley.

"Would you be willing to take a chance yourself?" asked Stewart.

"I'm ready to do it whenever you say," replied Eley. "Will you agree to follow me?"

"I'll follow you anywhere," Stewart came back promptly.

Other members of the committee broke in with suggestions as to how the challenge should be carried out. Uncle Jerry Andrews is willing to challenge the survivor to a leap from a third story window at the first post will be from the second story. The test will not be made until after the life-saving corps of the Fire Department is thoroughly drilled by the fireman who is going to San Francisco.

Chief Eley came before the committee yesterday clearly to secure an appropriation of $100 for the care of sick horses. He asked that horse stalls be built in the rear of all fire houses where there is room so that the horses need not be removed to the corporation yards where they do not get proper attention.

"A sick horse," said Chief Eley, "is like a sick person. It can get better attention at home than anywhere else. The men are fond of the horses and all they need is a chance to give them a rest."

"There have been eighty-nine sick and injured horses in the department during the past year. They have been cared for by a veterinary and when he has recommended it they have been removed to the corporation yards. We must either have a special man there to care for them or we should have box stalls in the service stations."

The Finance Committee decided that it would make an appropriation for taking care of sick horses, but asked Chief Eley to investigate further whether it would be better to build a central hospital or have the box stalls at the fire stations.

FOR HARBOR ROAD.

MAYOR FINDS A FUND.

Mayor Alexander yesterday addressed a message to the City Council calling attention to the fact that the city will probably have about $800,000 in its reserve fund at the close of the fiscal year and that $300,000 of this amount may be available for building a municipal road to the harbor. The city's revenue fund has been increased in several ways. There have been larger receipts from franchises, more interest, and recently Stanbury agreed to make a settlement on his outfall sewer contract for $75,000.

The city will require about $500,000 of the reserve fund to tide it over the months when taxes are not coming in.

In the balance, the Mayor believes, should be used for the municipal railroad. His letter to the Council follows:

"A municipal railway to the harbor is of the utmost importance. It is the most effective way to insure for all time reasonable freight and passenger rates. This project already is being taken up; and, under the instructions of your honorable body, a committee consisting of the Harbor Commission, Board of Public Works, and City Engineers, is preparing plans and working upon the securing of rights of way. The only thing that stands in the way of an early accomplishment of this enterprise is the lack of funds."

"I understand that, in all probability, by the end of the fiscal year, the city will have about $600,000 in its reserve fund and that five or six hundred thousand dollars will be amply sufficient to tide the city over what are known as the 'dry months' when taxes are not coming in."

"I would, therefore, strongly urge that your honorable body use this unused reserve fund for municipal railroad purposes."

HORN TO THE HORNS.

LET THE FISH MEN BLOW. Certain busy housewives in Los Angeles do not approve of the Council's anti-noise ordinance so far as it protects the fisherman from blowing his horn and the baker from ringing his bell. They like to know when fresh fish are going by the door in time to run out and select a nice rock bass for dinner without having to dress up and go down to the market.

Mrs. L. B. Herdon Innes of No. 1411 Dewey avenue, is at the head of a committee which has petitioned the Council to take some action that will allow the portable vendors more freedom. As it is now their only chance of doing business is to distribute cards which must be hung up in a front window. Many of their customers are only occasional and they must have hundreds of cards printed to maintain their routes. After the cards are printed the housewife forgets the days or for some other reason neglects to hang out her card and the fish man has gone by.

At the Courthouse.

JOSEPH IS OUT; OTHERS TRYING.

ALLEGED BOX-OFFICE LOOTERS MAY ALL GO FREE.

Principal in the Confessed Embezzlement of Money From Theaters Now Out on Five-Year Probation—His Companions Are Making Efforts to Secure Leniency.

The coming week will likely witness the closing of the case involving the looting of the Belasco Theater box-office by Ira Joseph, assistant treasurer; Roscoe Guin, doorman, and Paul Cave, head usher. According to the testimony of John Blackwood, about $10,000 was involved.

Ira Joseph was allowed to go on a five-year term of probation by Judge McCormick. A movement for the release of Guin is now well under way. His petition is being numerously signed and during the coming week the matter will be taken up by Judge McCormick.

On the occasion of the arraignment of the trio, after Joseph had pleaded guilty, and Cave not guilty, Guin expressed a desire to plead guilty to a misdemeanor, but the court would not allow this.

In the opinion of those who are connected with the management of the case it will be difficult to convict Guin of a felony, in that it will be impossible to show that he stole a sum in excess of $50 at any one time.

Not only has it been concluded that Guin can be convicted of nothing more serious than a misdemeanor, but it is understood that the District Attorney will not object to allowing Guin to go on probation. This is especially true, since the court has released Joseph, the arch conspirator of the trio, on parole.

The case of Cave possesses many of the features of that of Guin, and it is likely that an effort will be made to have him paroled.

COUPLE QUARREL EACH ALLEGES CRUELTY.

The marital troubles of Prof. Harry Couchman, principal of the Manchester Avenue School, and his wife, Beatrice, broke in with suggestions as to how the challenge should be carried out.

Uncle Jerry Andrews is willing to challenge the survivor to a leap from a third story window at the first post will be from the second story. The test will not be made until after the life-saving corps of the Fire Department is thoroughly drilled by the fireman who is going to San Francisco.

The case of Mrs. Couchman is being handled by a committee which has been formed to help her. The committee has been unable to find a lawyer to represent her.

The case of Mrs. Couchman is being handled by a committee which has been unable to find a lawyer to represent her.

The hearing will be continued this morning.

QUICK WORK.

CASE TAKES HALF HOUR.

Judge Hutton yesterday directed of an action brought by the National Lamp Company against C. W. Bell in thirty minutes by the clock. In that time a jury of twelve men was impaneled, the testimony of five witnesses was taken, and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $150.

The jury was accepted without challenge; the testimony was concluded; neither of the litigants had any argument, and the court ordered the jury to bring in a verdict for the plaintiff for the sum stated. The form of the verdict was written out, signed by the jury, and each man responded to his name on the roll call.

WIFE DIVORCED.

CO-RESPONDENT NOT FOUND. Miss Mabel Ewing, the sweet singer who enlivened George Norton, member of the choir of the Simpson Memorial Church of San Francisco, cannot be found, according to the return made in the action for divorce brought by Dell Norton against the faithless spouse. Judge Conroy gave the wife a divorce yesterday, it appearing that the summons was left at the last known address.

Mrs. Norton resides with her parents in Long Beach. She was married to Norton in Omaha, in 1882. The couple lived in San Francisco for some years, and both sang in the church choir. Dell Norton and Miss Ewing met at their trying place, according to the testimony, was the home of Mrs. L. M. Davis, on Fell street. The case was before the court about ten days ago, but the decree was denied, it not appearing that Miss Ewing had been present. It was also thought that she might have a defense. But she could not be found.

LOVES ANOTHER.

LEAVES HER HUSBAND. "You don't know what it is when you really love a man," said Mrs. Orrville W. McBain, when chided by some of her friends for having deserted her husband, a 3-year-old daughter, Charlotte, the correspondent of this newspaper. George Coombe, a neighbor of the family when they lived at No. 1331 Mariposa street. The testimony showed that Mrs. McBain and Coombe had lived together as man and wife on Wall street. McBain was given a decree and the custody of their child.

TRIP OF JURY.

TO VISIT THE BEACH. It was arranged yesterday, that some time during the coming week the jury that for the past three weeks has been hearing the testimony in the damage action, brought by George M. Jones against Abbot Kinney, shall visit the scene of the trouble.

The witness heard yesterday was Force Parker, David Evans, who presented the ground for the City Hall at Tokio; H. Morris, Mrs. J. A. Waldron and A. Stitzer. Much of the afternoon session was taken up by reading the records of the Board of Trustees, showing that Abbot Kinney had certain concessions for a period of but eight months, and that the consideration for the privilege of running Tent City and other enterprises was but nominal.

NOT ANNULLED.

RECORD IS INCOMPLETE. Anna M. Mitchell, who married Walter J. Mitchell, in Tacoma, June, 1893, would have secured her decree of annulment in Judge Conroy's court yesterday, but for the fact that the certificate of Mitchell's first marriage was not properly certified by the Salt Lake authorities.

It seemed from the record that Mitchell was married to Miss Geneva Thompson, in Salt Lake, July 15, 1893.

Testimony was given showing that his wife is still alive in that city.

A copy of the marriage certificate issued by the courts there was introduced.

It was not certified by the clerk of the court as being such a copy, and the deposition of the clerk could be secured as to the authenticity of the document.

The second Mrs. Mitchell said she had been married to the duplicitous husband a year after their wedding, when she was taking lunch with her husband's first wife.

They were to meet at the station, and that he had been drinking heavily.

He declared that he was not hungry, but that he couldn't resist the temptation to steal.

THIRTY DAYS.

TOO FOND OF CANNED GOODS.

James Payne, 65 years old, son of a can of oysters and a can of salmon from Hubert's grocery store, No. 2417 Brooklyn avenue, Thursday afternoon, was given thirty days in jail by Police Judge Williams yesterday.

Payne said that he was living with his niece in the Eastside and that there was no reason for taking the goods.

He declared that he was not hungry, but that he couldn't resist the temptation to steal.

FAST DRIVERS FINED.

FIFTEEN MEN DESIRE FREEDOM.

In Judge Cabaniss' court yesterday, the hearing of the habeas corpus writ in behalf of Fred Lashier, who is serving a prison sentence in Phoenix on the charge of forgery, was postponed until this morning.

Lashier was captured at Portland, but while en route to Phoenix, managed to escape. Afterward he took refuge in a rooming house in this city. Some of the neighbors noticed his mysterious actions, and word to the Sheriff that he was Sam Barron, the Venice car holder up man. When taken into custody, his identity was disclosed.

The trial of Daisy Turney Krause, who charged with making an attempt upon Franklin H. Grimes, was set for Monday. Mrs. Krause was tried several months ago. The jury could not agree on a verdict.

JULIAN ORTIZ charged with the killing of Catalino Martinez, pleaded not guilty to the information yesterday. His trial was fixed for March 2, last.

All the books and supplies for this school are furnished absolutely free to the pupils.

Beginning Monday, and for the balance of the month, the store will celebrate its anniversary with an annual sale.

EXPERIENCE BEST TEACHER.

Deputy Who Lost Prisoner Sent by Phoenix Sheriff to Take Him Back, After Capture Here.

That the Sheriff at Phoenix believes both in the golden rule and in the trite saying that "experience is the best teacher," is indicated by the fact that he has sent Fred Wolfe, a deputy, here to take back L. H. Lester Wolfe, who was recently appointed, made his first official trip when he went to Portland and got Lester out of Oregon while a writ of habeas corpus was thrust out. The prisoner worked on his sympathies and was allowed unusual liberties. He escaped at San Fernando.

While searching for Sam Barron,

one of the Tokio street car bandits,

Deputy Sheriffs Wright and Cochran of this county picked up the Arizona fugitive. Instead of disciplining Wolfe, the Phoenix Sheriff sent him back here to get Lester.

Wolfe arrived yesterday and explained how Lester succeeded in getting away. He said that the prisoner had been here to work and claimed that his conduct during a long leg of the journey was exemplary.

"I was trying to treat him like a human being, and he took advantage of it," said Wolfe, in speaking of the escape. Lester jumped from a moving train.

He has procured a writ of habeas corpus to have him held over to-day. The magistrate indicated that there was nothing illegal in the detention of the prisoner, and that he would refuse to give him freedom.

NOT DANGEROUS.

Press dispatches now describe Orozco as a "born fighter." But about the only ability he has demonstrated in the fighting line so far is the ability to escape a mix-up.

NO SLIGHT DIFFICULTY.

It is said that in Germany few marriages are taking place on account of the increased price of meat. What a shame that there should be thousands of loving couples with only a beefsteak between them-selves and happiness!

STREET LAMPS.

Most of us reach the point where we are compelled to surrender our hopes of setting the world on fire, but there is still no reason why we should not do modestly well as street lamps in a small community. Be a good candle and flame as much as you can.

BAD BUSINESS.

A young man embezzled $1500 at Seattle, lost it in San Francisco gambling houses and was arrested here. Dishonest shortcuts to things we want are trapdoors of disaster. It is too bad that so many are compelled to view this truism from so many angles before it "takes."

THERE ARE OTHERS.

The seventeen-year locusts are not the only pests that are likely to afflict the people this year. The suffragette and the walking delegate are still abroad; Jack London continues to write socialistic dope; several impious foreign noblemen are booked for Newport and at least 110 new religions are slated to be started.

IN ROMANTIC SAN DIEGO.

It appears that the combined efforts of the toothpick millionaire, the sticky fly-paper millionaire, the naphtha soap millionaire, the spool millionaire, and all the others were unavailing to defeat the cane sugar millionaire in a recent San Diego election. The millionaires seem to be ruling over us, wherever we are.

THE LURE OF GOLD.

Judging from all indications, there will be another great gold rush into Alaska this spring. It seems that the chance for a poor man to make a fortune in a few months, or perhaps in a day, still holds good in the frozen North.

One often wonders if Alaska is really the "last chance" or whether there remain other fields that will yet witness stampedes similar to that which made California famous in 1849.

However it may be in other places, it seems certain enough that California is witnessing the last days of placer mining. In the Valley of the Sacramento the great dredges which turn up acres of ground every day are now at work. Where once were beautiful vineyards and orchards there are now desolate wastes of heaped-up gravel. And the question arises, was it worth while to permanently destroy a splendid agricultural country for a temporary gain of gold dust and nuggets?

A TEMPEST IN A TEA-CUP.

The gift of humor, especially when given too free a rein among men of natural solemnity, is to the ingrained jester a dangerous heritage. A few kindred spirits catch the subtle essence of the situation, but grave and portly signors are apt to view the proceedings through ultra prosaic and stolid matter-of-fact glasses. Mark Twain would have richly enjoyed the facetious exchange of compliments between Champ Clark and other legislative humorists on the floor of the House, in the late discussion of the Canadian reciprocity treaty. Unfortunately, foreign correspondents are far from being Mark Twains—or even Champ Clarks! It should have been evident to all that the idea of annexing Canada was only a satirical weapon used by the Democratic standard-bearer to poke fun at the framers of the treaty.

The London Globe—always anti-American—hopes that Clark's speech will kill the reciprocity treaty which it considers ideal to imperial interests. The Morning Post, the favorite organ of the armchair and carpet warriors, who were so fond of giving pointers to the British generals in the Boer war, appeals to all Englishmen to "save the empire" from the now confessed designs of omnivorous America. The London Times, which has always been frank in its administration of President Taft, and which reflects the best sentiments of the solid business interests of Great Britain, does not believe that Mr. Clark's speech will be taken seriously by Americans, and advises Canada, before taking umbrage, to study carefully the reliable statements of President Taft and Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

No doubt Champ Clark, under the mask of raillery, was attempting to embarrass the administration and to influence the Senate against ratifying the treaty. But, if so, what has become of the old free trade plank so conspicuous in latter-day Democratic platforms? He certainly succeeded in placing the President in a somewhat delicate position, but it takes a clever man than Joker Champ to outgeneral a strategist like Howard Taft. The President's rebuke was well judged and effective. Should the reciprocity treaty finally fall down, it will not be from Democratic or insurgent filibustering, but from influences not at present discernible above the political horizon.

When Champ Clark becomes Speaker he will be a very different official from any the country has known in scores of years. He will sit in the chair and preside as the agent of the governing oligarchy of the House, the Committee on Ways and Means, which will select the joint committees without appeal. In a word, the Democratic caucus has dehorned the Democratic Speaker.

XIT WOOLWINE.
After having cost the taxpayers of Los Angeles county several thousand dollars, the contest of the election of Dist.-Atty. Fredericks has been abandoned by Woolwine and the recount has been dismissed. A large number of errors were discovered in the count, showing either carelessness of election officers or tampering with the packages of votes after they had been stored in the Courthouse, or both. But these discrepancies affected both sides. In some precincts Woolwine gained by the recount and in other cases Fredericks gained. The latter days of the proceeding were unfavorable to Woolwine, and changes showed that there was not the slightest hope of Woolwine being counted in. The contest was a fake—promoted by a Los Angeles millionaire with a grievance against Fredericks and an insatiable passion for doing evil to his enemies by agencies fair or foul. What a beautiful thing it would be for the community if he could have a District Attorney of his own!

Now that the recount has been dropped, The Times suggests that there is one phase of it which should not be passed over. It is alleged that the packages of votes were tampered with while they were in the custody of the County Clerk. The seals were broken in some cases and there were other suspicious circumstances. In the interest of pure elections and good government the grand jury should dig into this scandal. An outrage of this sort is worse than check-juggling.

THE ORIGIN OF A BRITISH PEER.

The average Englishman, and some Irishmen, look with awe upon a British peer. Somebody said of the poet Moore, "Tommy dearly loves a lord," and Moore himself, when asked what his politics were, replied—"as a poet am-a-tory." The great houses of England are of diversified origin. Some of the peers owe their titles and estates to the valor and statesmanship of their paternal ancestors, while others are called "Your Grace" or "Your Lordship" because of the complaisance of their maternal ancestors.

The origin of the wealthy, talented and influential ducal house of Marlborough is not left in doubt by Macaulay. He says:

"King James, young and ardent in the pursuit of pleasure, had been attracted to Arabella Churchill, one of the maids of honor who waited on his first wife. The young lady was plain; but the taste of James was not nice; and she became his avowed mistress. She was the daughter of a poor cavalier knight who haunted Whitehall and made himself ridiculous by publishing a dull and affected folio, long forgotten, in praise of monarchy and monarchs. The necessities of the Churchills were pressing; their loyalty was ardent; and their only feeling about Arabella's seduction seems to have been joyful surprise that so homely a girl should have attained such preferment."

Arabella was a devoted sister to her eldest brother John, who seems to have united in his person qualities not often found in the same individual. He was a brave and skillful soldier and an eloquent orator, although Macaulay says that "his education had been so much neglected that he could not spell the most common words of his own language." He was certainly a thorough blackguard and a sordid one. He not only profited by his sister's shame, but he levied ample contributions on ladies enriched by the spoils of more liberal lovers. Macaulay says: "He was, during a short time, the object of the violent but fickle fondness of the Duchess of Cleveland. On one occasion he was caught with her by the King and was forced to leap out of the window. She rewarded this hazardous feat of gallantry with a present of £5000. With this sum the prudent young hero instantly bought an annuity of £500 a year. Already his private drawer contained a hoard of broad pieces which, fifty years later, when he was a Duke, a Prince of the empire and the richest subject in Europe, remained untouched."

Many years afterward when, after the death of her royal customer, the Duchess of Cleveland was reduced to poverty, John Churchill refused to alleviate her distress. Pope comments on this circumstance as follows:

"The gallant too to whom she paid it down Lived to refuse his mistress half a crown."

John Churchill deserted and betrayed James II and gained favor with King William. To the day of his death he was regarded as the greatest soldier, the greatest statesman, the most treacherous noble, the most complaisant husband—when a King was the woso—the most sordid lover, and the most selfish miser in England.

How far his virtues or his vices have been transmitted to his descendants cannot be conjectured. It may be that a stream of rank poison at its source will, in the course of centuries, flow clear. The present Duke of Marlborough may be the most virtuous of peers, but the founder of his house was a despicable blackguard. The house of Marlborough no longer adds to its revenues by dealing in job lots of king's mistresses. It marries American heiresses.

A bill has been introduced in the Missouri Legislature making it a penitentiary offense for an aviator to go higher than 1000 feet. But just the difference it makes whether a man falls 1000 or 999 feet we fail to note. Either ought to be very discouraging to the bird man.

One of the visitors to the summit of Mt. Wilson attempted to recite a few snatches of "The Beautiful Snow" the other day, but as the crowd within hearing distance was not very large, he succeeded in making his escape.

President Taft is a mighty polite man, and we may expect to hear some soft billing and cooing when he makes his trip through the South. The South always did have a great many admirers among the Presidents of our time.

There will be no estrangement between the King and Queen of Spain, the slight difference of opinion as to which of the two should walk the floor with a teething baby having been happily adjusted.

Sam Gompers has made an appeal for $50,000 to fight industrial freedom in Los Angeles. Why doesn't Sam contribute the money himself? He has been enjoying a big raffle-off for quite a while.

All we now need for Los Angeles to win the baseball championship next season is a half team. The chairs for the new park have arrived.

Tommy Lee Woolwine, imitating the crab, is advancing backward in his dash for the District Attorneyship.

What Champ Clark becomes Speaker will be a very different official from any the country has known in scores of years. He will sit in the chair and preside as the agent of the governing oligarchy of the House, the Committee on Ways and Means, which will select the joint committees without appeal. In a word, the Democratic caucus has dehorned the Democratic Speaker.

Doesn't See the Joke.

ARE WOMEN IMMODEST?

BY MAY W. MANCHESTER.

I am a woman who believes that women are becoming immodest, sounding my conviction on the abortion called "style in dress."

The writer wishes to inform her modest sisters that she is a woman of modest mien, not an old maid, not a pessimist, not a woman-hater, not a man-lover, just a plain, modest Yankee schoolmarm, proud of the fact that she is a true-blue American, a lover of humanity with all its faults, and is in a position to know that love of dress is rapidly becoming the root of all evil for our girls and boys.

The good old scripture saying: "As a man thinketh, so is he" might be modernized with the parallel saying: "As a woman dresseth, so is she," for character fashions itself inwardly and outwardly as well. The fact that a so-called modest nation walks with abated breath for the latest French fashion is a nut with a hard shell to crack. The fact that hundreds, yes thousands, of our prettiest working girls vie with their less fortunate weathy sisters in dress, and to obtain it are willing to accept money and the attention of men promiscuously, is also a problem we of greater moral depth may well try to solve. Another well-known fact among teachers is that a large percentage of girls, who could and would become good students, cannot stand the criticism of those who somehow manage, honestly or otherwise, to dress in the latest and most immodest fashion, and therefore drift into occupations for which they are not fitted and too often cannot make expenses legitimately and seem forced by their personal pride to do otherwise.

One need only visit the offices where the proprietors demand French dolls at the desks and typewriters or other poorly-paid positions to take in at a single glance the great ogre that is menacing our womanhood, our motherhood, our homes, our nation. Many of the social evils of the day may be traced to the seeds of immodesty imbedded in the characters of our girls awaiting the right season for propagation.

A man does not necessarily need to associate intimately with a so-called low class of women; but let him spend a day on Broadway, or at the beaches, or at the parks, and he might retire in obscurity to the shade of a tree or an unoccupied doorway and if he is a delineator of character at all, satisfy himself to the modesty of women. Any woman who is at all conspicuous loses her right to be called modest. The American women of two centuries ago might well have resented a bomb-throwing criticism such as is thrown today, but have the American women of today the same exalted reverence for American talent, American customs, American manufacturers or American ideas as did our foremothers?

Men may flatter and tempt, but batters and temptations fall without fruit unless the flattered and tempted furnish fertile soil. The writer has had social and business dealing with all classes of men for years and has yet to learn that a man of lowest character refuses to recognize dignity and true womanhood—the kind he loved in his own mother. The man is what the woman makes him every time, even though it may take patience for years.

The man who is beside the woman in her degradation is there only so long as she makes it an advantage to remain. Supposing he does give her up as prude when she maintains her womanhood? He'll return some time; he couldn't help it, for the good in humanity is so much stronger than the evil that it is bound to "leaven the lump" some time and only needs a very little encouragement when the right time comes. Not one man in many dozens would dare to approach a attractive woman who throws herself at his feet. Why should he not himself in a position to be called a fool by his fellow associates, for such would call him, according to the standard of the day.

Girls should be trained to detect the difference between real admiration and trifling flirtation. A cat plays with a mouse until it tires and eats it. The cat does not play through a spirit of real admiration, and neither does man play with a silly woman flattery and self-misrepresentation until she is taken by her own folly. In this day of "Woman's Rights" woman must take her own shield for self-defense and learn the ways of the world to protect and avoid its depredations, under the protection of an attractive woman who is rapidly laying down her spirit of dependence and as such cannot lay quite as much claim to the chivalrous protection of the stronger sex.

The essentials, therefore, are committee-men elected singly and by the people directly, after nomination by petition, their names being printed on the official ballot, and the absolute prohibition of appointive executive committees.

MARY BROWNE SCARES HAZEL.

Casa Verdugo Girl Exhibits High Class Tennis.

Bundy Has Interesting Time With Winnie Mace.

Finals in All Matches are to Be Decided Today.

Little Mary Browne, an 18-year-old Casa Verdugo girl, came within a dozen points of defeating Miss Hazel Hotchkiss, the national champion, in the Hotel Virginia tennis tournament yesterday afternoon at Long Beach.

Miss Browne made the visiting champion extend herself to the utmost and only lost her two sets, 7-5, 6-4. Miss Browne's wonderful showing came as a distinct surprise to her friends and the spectators. Her overhand strokes were superb and she outplayed Miss Hotchkiss time and time again at the net, which is the champion's strongest point of play.

Miss Browne started off with a "bang" and won the first game in easy fashion. The champion annexed the second after a hard deuce game. They seawaged along to four all, when Miss Hotchkiss took a decided brace and won the next game easily.

Browne then won a rattling deuce game, making it five all. Miss Hotchkiss took the next two games in evicting play, winning the first set, 7-5.

Miss Browne, undaunted, took the first three games of the second set from her opponent before the British player struck her stride. Miss Hotchkiss won the next two games making it three all. Miss Browne won the next game, making it 4-2. Miss Browne played desperately in the next two games, but Miss Hotchkiss managed to win them and the set 5-4.

Miss Browne gave Miss Hotchkiss the hardest contest she has had since the champion was defeated by Miss May Sutton at Mt. Washington last summer. Miss Browne has been playing daily with Miss May Sutton and her sister Florence, and has improved wonderfully within the last few months. Her overhand strokes won many points for her and her volleying was excellent.

LACKS ACCURACY.

Miss Hotchkiss did not play her usual game and lacked accuracy in driving and placing the ball. Miss Hotchkiss congratulated Miss Browne on her fine playing after the match and the little girl to the echo. With practice and experience Miss Browne should make one of the best players in the country.

A large crowd of enthusiastic devotees of the tennis game witnessed the men's contests which were by far the best played in the tournament so far.

The weather was ideal for tennis playing with the exception of a slight ocean breeze, which "blew" up late in the afternoon.

BUNDY SURPRISED.

One of the best matches of the day was between Tom Bundy and Winnie Mace, the Occidental champion in finals of the men's side. The young star won the Southern California crack with a rush and won the first three games with apparent ease. Bundy missed several easy shots and his back-hand work was miserable. He took a brace and won the next two games after deuce score. Mace took the next two games, 7-5, 6-4, Bundy winning the set, 6-4. Mace held Bundy to three all in the second set and then lost his hold, dropping the set, 6-3. Bundy won the third set and match, 6-3. The score, however, does not indicate the closeness of the set. Mace fought every inch of the way and time and again played his opponent off his feet. Mace is scarcely 30 years of age and his game shows remarkable improvement over last season.

In the day, Bundy disposed of Alfonsi Bell, the former Coast champion, in two straight sets, 6-0, 6-4. Bell never had a chance with Bundy and failed to play his usual game. He was weak at the net and his overhand strokes, which are generally his strongest, were away off.

EXCITING DOUBLES.

The best contest in mixed doubles so far played in the tournament was between Mrs. Harvey and Hendrick. The former team took the first set, 6-1, after a most interesting battle.

Mrs. Harvey and Hendrick, the former team, took the first set, 6-1, after a most interesting battle. Mrs. Harvey played a beautiful game in the back court and made several marvelous cross-alley shots. In the second set, Mrs. Harvey and Hendrick and their opponents won the set, 6-1.

In the sixth, Redmond delivered his punch. Unholz was poking his nose toward the canvas, guarding his face and watching a chance to spring, when Redmond thumped him low to the back of the same brought Unholz into the air, and before he could assume a new fighting pose, Redmond put a short poke into his stomach.

Unholz dropped his hands and Redmond instantly put another hand to his nose, as some sort of a plexus. Those who have watched Miss Unholz did not care what the doctors called it. He was asleep.

Redmond's final almost came in the third when a jolt to the jaw had him reeling when they met this afternoon.

Miss Sutton plays an entirely different game from the national title holder. She depends mainly on her crushing drive strokes and back-court play, while Miss Hotchkiss relies primarily on her net game and back-hand strokes. When it comes to finesse and coolness there is little to choose between them, as both are old and experienced players. Miss Hotchkiss easily defeated Miss Sutton last year in the Ojai meet, winning one of her sets 6-0. Miss Sutton's friends assert that the Pasadena girl was not in good condition and that this year she will surely show her superiority.

The match between Bundy and McLoughlin could not be sized up with the odds in favor of the Southern representative. McLoughlin won from Bundy last year at the Virginia tourney, but Bundy has improved greatly. McLoughlin is playing a fine game and his service is almost unbeatable. He is confident of winning and has practiced faithfully for the contest.

In men's doubles it looks like Sinsbaugh and McLoughlin, they having had little difficulty during most of their opponents so far in the meet.

Miss Sherck won the final match in the Coronado ladies' singles from Mrs. Wilson, 6-1, 6-1. Miss Sherck has come to the front in Southern California tennis circles in the last year and plays a very good game. Her service is especially good. This match was postponed at Coronado on account of rain.

The hotel management will give a tennis ball this evening in the hotel ballroom in honor of the visiting racquet stars and special music has been secured.

FINAL PLAT DAY.

Today's programme includes the finest array of tennis talent that has ever been brought together for one day's play in the history of the sport in the United States. A large crowd is expected by the promoters of the tourney.

Capt. G. Green, former vice-president of the Pennsylvania Railroad and one of the first players of tennis in this country, witnessed the games yesterday. Capt. Green played tennis in 1854 in Germantown, Pa., when the nets were six feet high and the racquets the size of a squash racket. The balls used were about the same as those now played with by the twentieth century players. Miss Green, daughter of Capt. Green, is the only living member of the Drexel family.

Another interested onlooker was Raymond Duncan, the head of a cult whose belief is that it is the fewer clothes worn the more simple the life. He was accompanied by his wife and child. Their entrance into the gallery of the ornate Greek consumed their feet shot in sandals, attracted a great deal of attention. On their feet they wear heavy sandals of sole leather, the straps around the legs reaching to the calf and fastened together with ornaments. They were garbed in flowing robes, or tunics made of some light brown material that reaches to the calf of the leg and one end of which is thrown over the shoulder. The players centered their attention for a time on the peculiar passenger and then resumed their volleys and driving.

FASHION'S LATEST—THE PASHA SKIRT.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—As if the "hobble" skirt, topped by one of those monstrous hats which still are the vogue here, were not enough to make lovely woman the reverse of lovely, comes the "harem" or "Pasha" skirt from Paris (a modification of the divided riding habit,) to make fair femininity look for all the world like the clown in the circus.

The attempt to make the harem skirt "go" in Paris has fallen rather flat, and the indications are that the promoters of the new costume will meet with failure here. The effect of the garment is to make a woman look a perfect dowdy, and, therefore, your dashing American girls will have none of it.

SPRING FASHIONS IN NEW YORK.

BY EDITH RAYMOND.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Of the new spring hats that have come out for Southern wear the most extreme one is made of excessively coarse straw braid in a stovepipe turban shape. The straw is all of an inch in width and is braided loosely, so that the model is the sturdiest thing in the world. It is usually made in two-toned mixed braid and the shape sits far over the head like a hood with the tall crown standing out at an angle instead of straight up and down.

Everything is to be seen in these straw hats, from the wide to the fine. One liner is unfaded until spring fashions lay down rigid laws for her. And then, unless there is more rigidity in the fashion rules than there has been this last year or two, her own sweet will is sure to continue to lead her with fervent conviction.

Burban shapes are always popular at the midseason stage, and they are plentiful now in the advance spring straws. Some very conservative models are made of chip with black crowns and natural straw brims or the reverse.

Big straw hats often look as though they had been caught in a gale and had come out pretty well battered up in the contest. Wide, uneven brims and dented crowns give this look. But to most persons such hats make them look like the hard conventional line of the perfectly straight brim. The parasols continue to blow in spite of winter rains, and they increase in variety with every fresh blossoming out. One of the prettiest styles is pagoda shaped, and this new style, like the pagoda, is distinguished by leaving an unexpected outline.

White Lingere Scarf.

The white lingere scarf is one of the fresh arrivals. It is long and wide and more or less elaborate with needlework or embroidery. The scarf is powdered with medium-sized eyelets and bordered with eyelet and solid embroidery with deeper bands of the work at the ends. The scarf was scalloped all around.

A full day the shop is not too much to spend in looking over the new cottons that are in full bloom on the counters. If the manufacturer had his way we should all be buying bordered pieces. And the way he has taken to decoy the rank and file of remaining into suit and trimmable volume for his understanding of the lurking love of beauty in every shopper's soul. If there is any field that would yield choice designs in color and form that he has not searched out for his uses it is across undivided seas. France and garden dreams are rich with surprises, everything that would lend itself to his purpose he has em placed freely and effectively.

The borders run through posy and foliage patterns, paradise scenes, outlines and colors bring the pictures from old hand-blown linens and cottons a full gamut of the modern "new art" ideas and tones which moderns have flished from nature put through prisms of imaginative design.

The cretonne patterned borders are receiving a good deal of attention just now. The Parisian patterns, plentiful now, of rich, deep colors, are a surprise to a good many shoppers, who looked for these eastern designs to have had their run and faded before this hour. But they are all here and more abundant in variety and style. And their use in the highest-priced silks and cottons makes their standing sure. Bulgarian designs also appear now and then among the cottons either in borders or all-over patterns. And at the trimming counters flounces embroidered in Bulgarian colorings have arrived with the same enthusiasm here.

The velvets and their kind, possibly, lead all the rest of the cottons for dainty frocks. The lingerie dress for the coming season will be as often in transparent weaves, such as marquetteries, voiles and the like, as in the solid, more massive, handwoven linens. Some of the little daintier frocks brought in already are of cotton voile, very fine and sheer and very elaborate with needlework and lace.

Grass linen in lace striped effects is now among the linens and cottons for afternoons. It comes in linen tones striped with a color and it is sheer and lacy. In fancy grenadine weaves there is a plentiful array among cotton and cotton silk mixtures. Among the black and solid colored ones the silk and cotton mixtures offer practical value. These thin cottons are being used in valances, curtains and variously patterned slips or linings. For these slips the cotton foulards in their long range of colors and designs, and with their glossy surfaces are effective.

All-over embroidered batiste, voiles and the like are more plentiful than ever before. And the swans, and other fine materials with borders embroidered by machine are captivating. These come mostly in robe patterns, but not at prohibitive prices. Black and white or gray and white pieces often have bright borders. The cotton challis from the other side of the big water reproduce some of the choice patterns found in the all-wool challis of greater price. These cotton challis which are new in their range of desirable patterns and colors this year, are a good buy for house dresses, negligees and the like.

COTTONS TO BE POPULAR.
